Membership Terms and Agreements

Acknowledgement of Risk and Parental Consent

Participation in Savannah Volleyball Elite (SVE) involves risks inherent to the sport of volleyball. Players and their parents or guardians must acknowledge that playing or practicing volleyball can be dangerous and may result in serious injuries. These risks include, but are not limited to, death, significant neck, head, and spinal injuries that could lead to partial or complete paralysis, as well as other injuries affecting general health and wellbeing. It is essential for all participants to follow the instructions provided by coaches regarding playing techniques, training, and team rules, and to comply with those instructions at all times.

Waiver of Liability

By joining SVE, the player and their representatives—including executors, administrators, heirs, next of kin, successors, and assigns—hereby waive any claims they may have against SVE, its officers, directors, members, volunteers, employees, coaches, agents, USAV, AAU/JVA, and their representatives. This waiver includes claims for damages resulting from negligence, injuries, or death arising out of participation in volleyball activities. Additionally, this release covers any costs, including attorney's fees, associated with such claims, whether valid or not. SVE, its staff, and sponsors are released from any liability related to injury or death during practice, competition, or related activities.

Responsibility for Personal Possessions

Participants acknowledge that they are solely responsible for the care and security of their personal possessions and athletic equipment during competitions and related activities with SVE.

Physical Fitness Verification

Players affirm and verify that they are physically fit and have adequately trained for participation in SVE competitions. Their physical condition has been certified by a licensed medical doctor.

Consent to Medical Treatment

In the event of injury, accident, or illness during participation with SVE, the player consents to receive any medical treatment deemed advisable.

Membership Cancellation and Account Funds

If membership is canceled, whether by the player or by SVE, for any reason, any funds remaining in the player's account will become the property of SVE.

Payment and Billing Agreement

The player agrees to adhere to SVE's payment and billing procedures. By signing this agreement, the player accepts full responsibility for the entire membership fee.
